

Kassamira Carter-Howard

(she/her)

Washington, DC

I am a black queer femme multi-disciplinary artist inspired by concepts of play, black girlhood, and reclaiming one's sense of wholeness. My art seeks to articulate the various stages of one's healing journey and the radical transformation we seek in ourselves and our communities.

Featured Work (various prices):

- Together at the Edge of the World (2021)
magazine clippings, watercolor, watercolor paper, and black ink pen; 27 x 32 inches; selling at $10,000
- Daydreaming (2018)
linoleum block print on paper; 11x14 inches
- Queer AF (2019)
acrylic on denim jean jacket; 11.5 x 16.5 inches; selling at $1,500